FROM JOHN CORR, OUR SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT'S FATHER:

My daughter Mallory Corr was a scholarship recipient from your organization 2011 as a graduating senior from New Hope Solebury H.S. She is in her second year at NYU as a Photography & Imaging major. She is truly excelling and is definitely living her dream of attending school in New York. She is preparing to study abroad in Prague for the Spring 2013 semester. She was also just recognized by Complex Magazine as being in the Top 50 Music Photographers right now. Here is the link to the article: <http://www.complex.com/art-design/2012/10/the-50-greatest-music-photographers-right-now/mallory-corr>

Just thought you might like to know what one of your honorees is up to. Thanks from a proud Poppa.

DECEMBER CELEBRATION:

Our holiday soiree will be at the Eagle Firehouse, from 7 to 9pm, on Tuesday December 11th. This is a BYOB and covered dish evening. Please rsvp to the Art League [nhalpa@gmail.com]. Let us know what you are bringing.

FROM OUR VP, PAT DOOLEY:

We are in the process of putting our 2013 Events Calendar together and we have some excellent speakers lined up for the New Year.

On January 29th, we are fortunate to have Materese Roche address our Membership. Materese is a preeminent oil painter and teacher, and has studied with master still life artist, Frank Arcuri. In addition to her work with Mr. Arcuri, Materese has studied at the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts and the Barnes Foundation. Her Classical training and studies of Aesthetics are evidenced in her work which may be viewed at The Studio & Gallery of Materese Roche in Buckingham as well as at the Chapman Gallery in Doylestown. Please view Materese's web site – www.ghostwoodstudio.com and you will see her breathtaking landscapes and still lifes. Materese will give a lecture and a demonstration of the techniques she uses to convey ideas and emotions in her work.

On February 26th, Kathy Keller and Carol Greenberger of Graphic Imaging in Pipersville, Pa, will give a presentation on their wide variety of services and how they can benefit area artists. Graphic Imaging is well respected for the high quality and precision of their imaging products. Of particular interest to our membership is the company's ability to do beautiful reproductions of watercolor, pastel, oil, pen & ink and pencil originals on textured 100% cotton rag papers or canvas. Kathy and Carol will discuss the giclee process and how artists can benefit from their services – giclees, mini giclees, notecards, etc. Graphic Imaging's products and services enable artists to expand the viewership of their artworks as well as open new markets for local artists.

Make sure you put the dates for these important presentations on your calendar. Also, please let us know if there is something you would like to see at one of our meetings. Please email Pat Dooley at patriciadooley@verizon.net or call 267-880-1789 with your suggestions
